

Adapting to Market Conditions

Week Leading into Election

Less predictability.

Focus on what works
for you (core setups)

Take quick profits, do not overstay.

DO NOT hold losers. In this climate nothing is coming back.

Focus - no more than 10
stocks on watch and 3 to trade.

NSPR - happens so quick
but opportunity huge. DO not accept distractions.

Avoid holding overnight.
Only winners. NEVER a loser.

I continue to be very long bias. Edge is still there.

As traders we are politically agnostic.

This election and huge bull market run have high chance of creating extreme volatility.

Keep powder dry for next week.
Save day trades, conserve
capital, stack up small gains.

May be wrong but the potential for next week to begin one of the best “trader” markets is VERY high

Be a sniper. Wait for the best times.

In closing, be very quick and agile this week. Just 4 trading days until election.
